

Reading Guide

Get swept into a new season
of best writing

*'Unmissable' -
Australian crime and debut fiction*

— Louise Milligan's Pheasants Nest

BOOK FACE

Australian Fiction

Welcome to the new edition of the BookPeople Reading Guide!

Handpicked by some of the best independent booksellers in the country, this new edition brings you a selection of the most exciting new releases for the season—from Australian and international fiction, to biographies, history, nature and science, along with a wonderful collection of children's and young adult writing.

With so many books to choose from, you are sure to find the right book for you and the best gifts for family and friends.

Happy reading!

Safe Haven Shankari Chandran

Ultimo Press
TPB $34.99

May release,
pre-orders welcome

Fina, a refugee and tireless advocate for others, is removed from her home in country Australia and threatened with deportation. Lucky Dharman, investigating a death, arrives at the brutal detention centre where Fina is held, soon realises his investigation and Fina's fate are inextricably linked. The 2023 Miles Franklin winner returns with another brilliant story of the immigrant experience.

To Sing of War Catherine McKinnon

4th Estate
TPB $32.99

May release,
pre-orders welcome

From the author of Storyland, comes a beautiful, rich and thrilling novel of love, war and friendship. Set in the last months of WWII, the story moves from New Guinea to Los Alamos, the US and Japan. When a weapon of mass destruction changes the nature of war; how does fear shape our behaviour, what is unforgiveable in love and war?

No Church in the Wild Murray Middleton

Picador Australia
TPB $34.99

Vogel Award-winner Murray Middleton throws together a fresh-faced cop and an idealistic teacher who undertake the gruelling pressure test of the Kokoda Trail alongside some troublesome youth in the hope of stemming the racial and class violence plaguing their community.

The Glass House Anne Buist and Graeme Simsion

Hachette
TPB $32.99

A charming, witty, fly-on-the-wall peek at a psychiatric ward and lives of patients within. Drawing on Buist's own experiences and told in Simsion's inimitable style, the two explore beyond the medical diagnoses and stigma around mental health to get to the hearts of the patients, doctors and families all brought together by a strained medical system.

Appreciation Liam Pieper

Hamish Hamilton
TPB $34.99

When artist Ollie Darling puts his foot in his mouth on national television, his reputation and the value of his art go up in flames.

Years of mythmaking rapidly unravel, and the people who have poured money into Darling's success are not happy. Restoring his public image requires the unthinkable—Ollie must write a memoir and confront the consequences of what he has done.

Thunderhead Miranda Darling

Scribe Publications
HB $29.99

Unfolding over a seemingly typical day, Winona Dalloway is a young mother running her household. Her waking day starts prior to the 'tiny tornado of little hands and feet', an indication of that which sustains her. As the day proceeds to its end, Winona's chaotic inner mindscape is revealed to be darkly funny and intense in its lacerating sharpness.

All the Words We Know Bruce Nash

Allen & Unwin
TPB $32.99

A quirky, moving and wickedly funny novel about Rose, an eighty-year-old dementia patient, who's struggling to make sense of the world and trying to find out what really happened to her friend who died after supposedly falling from a window. A cosy mystery about loneliness and language told with wit and heart, perfect for fans of The One-Hundred-Year-Old Man Who Jumped out the Window.

Death of a Foreign Gentleman Steven Carroll

4th Estate
TPB $32.99

Set in Cambridge 1947, Detective Sergeant Stephen Minter, an Austrian-born cockney Jew, is tasked with finding out if Martin Friedrich, a German philosopher, was killed by accident or murdered. Friedrich was a womaniser, ex-Nazi and hated by most who knew him. This literary whodunit by award-winning author, Steven Carroll, is the first in a series.

Win a Pack of Great Australian Stories and an exclusive Boy Swallows Universe print.

With thanks to the publisher HarperCollins Australia, we're giving away a beautiful print based on the original cover of Boy Swallows Universe, Trent Dalton's bestselling novel, and a pack of 17 Great Australian Stories, valued at over $600.

To view the full list of titles in the pack, and for your chance to WIN, purchase a book from this guide from your local bookshop and enter the competition at bookpeople.org.au/competitions.

*Terms & conditions apply. Competition closes 30 June.

Cool Water Myfanwy Jones

Hachette
TPB $32.99

A Queensland family gathers at the dam they built in the 1950s to celebrate a daughter's wedding. As the water begins to recede, strange objects begin to emerge, summoning disquieting memories along with them. An unforgettable novel about angry fathers and secretive sons that asks what it means to be a good man.

The Work Bri Lee

Allen & Unwin
TPB $32.99

When Lally—a wealthy, ambitious art curator—meets Pat—an antiques appraiser struggling to pay his rent—sparks fly immediately. Their international affair ebbs and flows like the market, while their aspirations and insecurities drive them both towards career-ending mistakes. A stunning debut novel about art, power, love and money from the acclaimed and bestselling author of Eggshell Skull.

One Another Gail Jones

Text Publishing
TPB $34.99

An examination of the intersections of art and life in Gail Jones's distinctively immersive and rich prose. At Cambridge, in 1992, Australian student Helen is completing her thesis on Joseph Conrad. But she is distracted by a charming and dangerous lover, and the loss of her thesis on a train. The drama of the lost manuscript sets in motion a series of events with possibly fatal consequences.

The Rewilding Donna M. Cameron

Transit Lounge
TPB $32.99

When Jagger discovers the ugly truth about his father's extremely wealthy company, he blows the whistle and goes on the run. When he crosses paths with Nia, an extreme ecological activist, together they head north on a journey that just might kill them both. Part romance, part mystery, part environmental wake-up-call, all page turner.

The Revenge Club Kathy Lette

Aria
TPB $32.99

Don't get mad, get even, is the modus operandi of the Revenge Club, a group of four women who are tired of being personally overlooked and professionally pushed aside by less-qualified men. Matilda, Penny, Jo and Cressy plot, plan and execute retribution for years of criticism, contempt, stonewalling and being made to feel invisible.

Compassion Julie Janson

Magabala Books
TPB $34.99

Based on the real-life story of one of Julie Janson's ancestors who went on trial for stealing livestock, this is a gripping fictive account of Aboriginal life in the 1800s. Compassion continues the themes explored in Benevolence, an emotional and intense literary exploration of the complex and dangerous lives of Aboriginal women in colonial New South Wales.

Poetry, Novellas and Short Stories

Only the Astronauts Ceridwen Dovey

Hamish Hamilton
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

From the award-winning author of Only the Animals,

Ceridwen Dovey delivers another spectacular collection of stories. Join the motley crew of human-made object-astronauts, in this surreal and imaginative narrative, as they traverse the cosmos and observe humans both intimately and from a great distance, bearing witness to a civilisation unable to live up to its own ideals. Imaginative, delightful and truly moving.

The End of the Morning Charmian Clift and edited by Nadia Wheatley

NewSouth Publishing
PB $34.99

Based on Charmian Clift's own life growing up in the working-class community of a NSW coastal town during the Great Depression, we are introduced to Cressida Morley, Clift's young alter ego, the eccentric Morley family and their hopes for the future. Published for the first time, alongside a selection of Clift's essays, this is a testament to the brilliant mind of one of Australia's most renowned essayists.

36 Ways of Writing a Vietnamese Poem Nam Le

Scribner Australia
HB $26.99

Fifteen years after his award-winning collection of stories The Boat, Nam Le returns to his greatest themes of identity and representation. Described as the book Le felt he needed to write, this breakthrough book-length poem is an urgent, unsettling reckoning with the violence of identity, embedded with racism, oppression and historical trauma. Le makes use of multiple tones, moods, masks and camouflages to create this masterpiece of personal and political histories.

The White Cockatoo Flowers: Stories Ouyang Yu

Transit Lounge
HB $32.99

A landmark collection of short stories from the legendary Chinese-Australian writer revelling in the candour of lived experience from Shanghai to Montreal to Australia. Yu deftly peels back the layers on what it means to move from one culture to another, and what it means to be a writer, a husband, a parent and a stranger on foreign and familiar ground.

Always Will Be Mykaela Saunders

UQP
TPB $32.99

Winner of the 2022 David Unaipon Award, Mykaela Saunders presents a compelling collection of speculative fiction envisioning futures where Indigenous sovereignty reigns in the Tweed region. With diverse characters and imaginative storytelling, Always Will Be transcends cynicism, offering a celebration of Goori culture and resilience amidst changing landscapes.

The Other Side of Daylight David Brooks

UQP
PB $26.99

The Other Side of Daylight combines brilliant new works with some of the best works from David Brooks' long and honoured poetry career. Pondering on themes of justice and the relationship between humans and animals, this collection is clever, lyrical, and a sure favourite for poetry lovers.

New Australian Crime

Pheasants Nest
Louise Milligan
Allen & Unwin
TPB $32.99

After humiliating a dangerous man on a girls' night out, journalist Kate Delaney finds herself beaten, bound and gagged in the back of a car. While her best friend and boyfriend race to put together the clues to aid the search for her, Kate knows all too well how these stories end and every minute that passes diminishes her chances of survival. An unputdownable thriller debut.

What Happened to Nina?
Dervla McTiernan
HarperCollins
TPB $34.99

In this gripping suspense novel by the bestselling author of The Ruin, two families clash when Nina vanishes during a weekend trip with her partner, Simon. As Simon's story raises doubts, Nina's family battles against his influential relatives, resorting to unconventional tactics to uncover the truth amidst media frenzy and conspiracy theories.

The Mystery Writer
Sulari Gentill
Ultimo Press
TPB $34.99

Theo arrives on her brother's doorstep in the USA to run away from her university law course and focus on writing her mystery novel. When the first friend she makes turns up dead and a strange man starts to follow her, things soon get complicated. With conspiracy theories, secret motives and publishing industry drama, this is a page-turner you won't be able to put down.

Red River Road
Anna Downes
Affirm Press
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Katy is on a mission to find her free-spirited sister, Phoebe, who disappeared while travelling in WA a year ago. In this nerve-shredding outback thriller, our obsessions with freedom and beauty collide with our fear of what lies in the wilderness, and the truth behind Phoebe's disappearance proves stranger and darker than Katy could ever have guessed.

It Takes a Town
Aoife Clifford
Ultimo Press
TPB $34.99

In this country town, everyone dies famous. When child star Vanessa Walton is found dead, it appears to be an accident, until anonymous letters suggest otherwise. Local teenager Jasmine Landridge also claims her death was murder, until Jasmine herself mysteriously disappears. Secrets are exposed, friendships become untangled, and a community comes together to solve this cozy crime.

Sanctuary
Garry Disher
Text Publishing
TPB $34.99

In rural South Australia, Grace has been living a life full of not-so-petty theft. But her watchful eyes have grown weary, and she's ready to get out of the game. She finds her escape in a job and a life in rural antiques shop, but someone is still out there looking for her, and Grace is not as hidden as she thinks. A thrilling new standalone from one of Australia's most esteemed crime authors.

Australian Debuts

My Brilliant Sister
Amy Brown
Scribner Australia
TPB $32.99

While Stella Miles

Franklin took on the world, her beloved sister Linda led a short, domestic life as a wife and mother. Amy Brown thrillingly reimagines those two lives—and her own—to explore and explode the contradictions embedded in brilliant careers and a woman's place in the world.

What I Would Do to You
Georgia Harper
Vintage Australia
TPB $34.99

The death penalty is back in a near-future Australia, but with a catch. If the family of the victim want the penalty enforced, they must execute the perpetrator alone in a room by themselves. Harper thoughtfully explores the fraught leadup to this day for the stricken family of a murdered ten-year-old.

Tilda is Visible
Jane Tara
Affirm Press
TPB $34.99

When Tilda Finch is diagnosed with invisibility, she's not overly surprised. She has a good life but has never truly recovered from her past. Facing complete disappearance, she must face her trauma and rewrite the way she perceives the world and herself in this refreshingly unique and heartwarming look at ageing and acceptance.

All the Beautiful Things You Love
Jonathan Seidler
Macmillan Australia
TPB $34.99

Enzo walks out on

Elly after ten years together, leaving Elly heartbroken in a flat full of memories. She decides to sell everything that reminds her of what she had. Seidler's novel explores the mementoes we keep and how they change when love ends and starts again.

Dirt Poor Islanders
Winnie Dunn
Hachette
TPB $32.99

Winnie Dunn, half-white, half-Tongan, has written a beautiful and searching memoir exploring the strain of growing up between two cultures. Conflict with family and islander traditions come to a head in the blazing heat of Western Sydney.

The Players
Deborah Pike
Fremantle Press
TPB $34.99

In 1990s Perth, a group of students are rehearsing a play, but the gravity of passion, rivalry, and shared connection see them bound together over years and continents. In their search for meaning, they also discover love—and its consequences. A midsummer's daydream in Perth.

The Deed
Susannah Begbie
Hachette
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Tom Edwards is dying and he knows it. In one last challenge to his dysfunctional children, he tasks them with building his coffin or losing their inheritance. As each sibling's own story is revealed, Begbie illustrates how dangerous assumptions can be in complex family dynamics.

The Story Thief
Kyra Geddes
Affirm Press
TPB $34.99

Building on Henry Lawson's famous

short story, Kyra Geddes weaves literature, history, fact and fiction in this stirring family saga. We follow Lillian's journey to unravel the truth—was The Drover's Wife based on her own family history and did Lawson take the credit for the story? A fresh, feminist perspective on the Australian classic.

Anna O
Matthew Blake
 HarperCollins
 TPB $32.99

Anna O, comatose for four years and suspected of a double murder, presents a formidable challenge to Dr. Benedict Prince, a renowned forensic psychologist. As he delves into her unconscious mind, a complex and dark mystery unfolds, offering a gripping narrative with a twist ranking among the best. For readers of Gillian Flynn, A. J. Finn, and Alex Michaelides.

Butter
Asako Yuzuki
 4th Estate
 TPB $32.99

When journalist Rika is granted access to the imprisoned chef serial killer Manako Kajii, their conversations about home cooking soon awaken more than her journalistic curiosity. Inspired by a real Japanese criminal, this is a vivid, unsettling exploration of misogyny, obsession, romance and the transgressive pleasures of food in Japan.

The Underhistory
Kaaron Warren
 Viper
 TPB $32.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Pera Sinclair was nine the day the pilot intentionally crashed his plane into her family's grand home. She was the only survivor. Over the decades, Pera rebuilt the huge and rambling building, opening the house for haunted house tours. When dangerous men arrive on the last tour of the season, the men will learn that Pera is far from helpless... An original and chilling tale of loss and self-preservation.

How to Solve Your Own Murder
Kristen Perrin

Quercus
 TPB $32.99

As a teenager Frances was told by a fortune teller that one day she'd be murdered, so she spends a lifetime compiling dirt on every person she meets just in case they turn out to be her killer. Upon her eventual death, her great-niece Annie must find the killer using Frances's eccentric library of detective work.

The Last Murder at the End of the World
Stuart Turton
 Raven Books
 TPB $32.99

In a world devastated by an enigmatic mist, a tranquil island shelters 122 inhabitants and three scholars, until one of the scholars is gruesomely murdered, triggering the deactivation of their only defence against the encroaching fog. A must-read for fans of Turton's The Seven Deaths of Evelyn Hardcastle.

Gift with purchase offer: Purchase a copy of the book from participating bookshops (bookpeople.org.au/readingguides/stockists) and receive a free holographic bookmark. *While stocks last.

City in Ruins
Don Winslow
 HarperCollins
 TPB $34.99

Danny Ryan's journey through the highs and lows of organised crime comes to an epic end in this fitting finale to the brilliant career of one of the world's great contemporary crime writers.

Historical Fiction and Fantasy

The North Wind
Alexandra Warwick
 Simon & Schuster Australia
 TPB $32.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

When discovers there is more than what meets the eye when it comes to the God of Winter, and strives to discover his alluring secrets while attempting to destroy his grip on the never-ending cold that plagues their land. Inspired by Beauty and the Beast and the myth of Hades and Persephone, The North Wind is perfect for fans of fans of slow-burn romance and worlds rich with fairytales and enchantment.

Psykhe
Kate Forsyth
 Vintage
 TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome.

After the beautiful Psykhe provokes Venus, her family loses everything and Psykhe must find a way to make amends. She is tasked with travelling to the Underworld and facing Proserpina to save her forbidden love. Inspired by Beauty and the Beast and the myth of Hades and Persephone, this lush and enchanting enemies-to-lovers fantasy romance is perfect for fans of Sarah J. Maas.

The Warm Hands of Ghosts
Katherine Arden Century
 TPB $34.99

A novel about the trauma of war and the power of love and endurance. Set in Flanders as shells fall during World War One, Laura, a Canadian nurse, is desperately searching for her brother who is presumed dead, but she does not quite believe. A gripping book showing the determination of a sister and the dark places that she will go for love.

Saltblood
Francesca De Tores
 Bloomsbury
 TPB $32.99

Born as Mary but raised as Mark to ensure her family's inheritance, Mary Read's life is one of performance and survival. Spanning mansions, brothels, battlefields, and oceans, De Tores breathes life into the golden age of piracy through the wild adventures of legendary pirate Mary Read.

Medea
Rosie Hewlett Bantam
 TPB $34.99

An epic tale of love, murder, and magic following one of the most maligned women in Greek myth. Persecuted as a witch, Medea sees her opportunity for a new life in the dashing young hero Jason. When faced with the ultimate betrayal, she is driven to an act of desperation so brutal it rips apart the lives of everyone involved.

The Familiar
Leigh Bardugo
 Viking
 TPB $34.99

When scullery maid and magic user Luzia Cotado is plunged into a competition in search of a holy saint in the royal court of Inquisition-era Madrid, she may only get out alive with the help of a mysterious immortal familiar, a man who may sacrifice her as soon as save her. From the bestselling author of Shadow and Bone.

When the Moon Hatched
Sarah A. Parker
 Voyager
 TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

A fast-paced fantasy romance for fans of witty banter and strong, sassy protagonists. Beneath the cover is an immersive, vibrant world with mysterious creatures, a unique magic system, and a love that blazes through the ages.

International Fiction

Table for Two Amor Towles

Hutchinson Heinemann
TPB $34.99

Table for Two brings together six glamorous short stories based in New York and a peek into what happened to Eve Ross of Rules of Civility fame. Towles considers the fateful consequences that can spring from brief encounters and the delicate mechanics of compromise that operate at the heart of modern marriages. The novella, Eve in Hollywood, serves as a follow up to Towles's novel Rules of Civility. Towles fans are in for a treat.

Funny Story Emily Henry

Viking
TPB $34.99

When Daphne moves to her fiancé's hometown, it's fair to say she's shocked when he cheats on her with his childhood best friend, Petra.

Feeling sorry for Petra's ex-boyfriend, Daphne invites him to live with her as a (temporary) roommate. While he convinces her to give the town a second chance, she just might fall for the place—and him.

Mania Lionel Shriver

Borough Press
TPB $32.99

What if calling someone stupid was illegal? In the near future, the Mental Parity Movement has taken hold, the worst thing you can call someone is 'stupid' and as such, everyone is considered to be equally clever. The relationship between best friends Pearson and Emory fractures as they find themselves on opposing sides of this new culture war.

Until August

Gabriel García Márquez

Viking
HB $35.00

Ana Magdalena Bach is happily married with no reason to escape the world she's made with her husband and children.

Yet every August, she travels to the island where her mother was buried and takes a new lover for one night. Constantly surprising and wonderfully sensual, this is Márquez's posthumously published meditation on freedom, regret and the mysteries of love.

The Axeman's Carnival

Catherine Chidgey

Europa Editions
Demy PB $32.99

Set in New Zealand's South Island, Marnee and her husband Rob are struggling sheep farmers. Tama is just a helpless magpie chick when he is rescued by Marnee. As Tama develops the ability to speak, and his fame grows, Marnee finds herself confiding in him about her violent marriage... In turns heartbreaking and hilarious, this is a hauntingly beautiful tale.

Enlightenment

Sarah Perry

Jonathan Cape
TPB $34.99

May release,
pre-orders welcome

From the author of the bestselling The Essex Serpent, Thomas Hart and Grace Macauley are fellow worshippers at a Baptist chapel in a small Essex town. Though separated in age, the pair are kindred spirits—torn between their commitment to religion and their desire for more. But with the arrival of love, their friendship is threatened, and their worlds may never look the same.

The Gentleman from Peru

André Aciman

Faber
HB $26.99

Set on the Amalfi Coast, a group of college friends invite a mysterious, white-bearded stranger to lunch at their luxurious hotel. What follows is a tale of wisdom, miraculous abilities, and profound love, from the author of Call Me by Your Name, a poignant narrative about longing, regret, and the transformative power of love.

You Are Here

David Nicholls

Sceptre
TPB $32.99

May release,
pre-orders welcome

David Nicholls leads us on a walk across the north of England, seen through the eyes of Marnie and Matthew. Strangers both, they have each succumbed to singledom but their friend Cleo is having none of that and conspires to get them out of their comfort zones. Perhaps two weeks of all-weather cross-country walking is exactly the fix they need.

The River We Remember

William Kent Krueger

Atria Books
TPB $32.99

In 1958, a small Minnesota town is rocked by the murder of a wealthy landowner. Sheriff Brody

Dern, a decorated war hero, is tasked to investigate. As suspicions of a fellow veteran mount, the town teeters on the edge of violence and Dern must struggle to find the truth of Quinn's murder while calming his past demons.

Debut and Translated Fiction

The Fellowship of Puzzle Makers

Samuel Burr
Orion
TPB $32.99

Abandoned at birth on the steps of the Fellowship of Puzzle Makers, Clayton Stumper was raised by the sharpest minds in the British Isles. When an esteemed crossword compiler dies and leaves him with her final puzzle, Clay uncovers something even the Fellowship have never been able to solve.

The Divorcées

Rowan Beird
Manilla
TPB $32.99

In this gripping debut, set in 1950s America, Lois Saunders escapes her suffocating marriage at the Golden Yarrow, a 'divorce ranch,' only to have her life transformed by the arrival of Greer Lange in glamorous yet tumultuous Reno, Nevada. For fans of Beautiful Ruins and Lessons in Chemistry.

The Ministry of Time

Kaliane Bradley

Sceptre
TPB $32.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

In the near future, a civil servant is offered a lucrative job in a mysterious government ministry of time travel. Partnered as a guide to the handsome Commander Gore of the doomed 1847 Arctic expedition, the two are forced to confront their past choices and imagined futures.

Vladivostok Circus

Elisa Shua Dusapin
and Aneesa Abbas Higgins (trans)

Scribe
PB $27.99

Nathalie arrives at the circus in Vladivostok to design costumes for the world's best performing trio of the showstopping Russian Bar act. With her usual steady prose, Dusapin writes about the delicate balance of trust and harmony required between interconnecting relationships.

Caledonian Road

Andrew O'Hagan
Faber
TPB $34.99

Campbell Flynn has it all. He's a well-regarded art historian with the status of celebrity intellectual. When he strikes up a working relationship with a former student, his liberalism and assumptions come to seem performative and shallow as his world view is challenged. A brilliant contemporary satire skewering the inequities and pretensions of Brexit times.

This Strange Eventful History

Claire Messud
Fleet
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

A masterful story of a family on the wrong side of history. Charting the Cassars family from their separation in the chaos of WWII, and their lives across the globe—from Salonica, the US, Australia and France—through to social and political upheavals, this is an expansive, sweeping novel of one family's search for an elusive wholeness.

Small Hours

Bobby Palmer
Headline Review
TPB $32.99

In a wild landscape, Jack returns home to confront his father, Gerry, who communicates with animals. Their journey, triggered by a fox's presence and Jack's mother's absence, explores ambition, loss, and human connection. Brace yourself for a narrative that will not only tug at your heartstrings but also resonate long after the final page is turned.

A Year of Last Things

Michael Ondaatje
Jonathan Cape | HB $34.99

Bestselling author of The English Patient, Michael Ondaatje returns to poetry, where he began his career over fifty years ago. Here, Ondaatje moves back and forth in time, from a childhood in Sri Lanka to Moliere's chair during his last stage performance, merging memory with the present, looking back on a life of displacement and discovery, love and loss.

Clear

Carys Davis
Granta
HB $26.99

An exquisitely written, tender novel set on a remote island off the coast of Scotland during the Highland Clearances of 1840s. When John, an impoverished Scottish minister, accepts the job of evicting the lone remaining occupant of the island, despite the misgivings of his wife Mary, this sets in motion a chain of events that neither he nor Mary could have predicted.

Earth

John Boyne
Doubleday
HB $29.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Talented footballer Evan Keogh is charged with sexual assault alongside another player, a series of text messages pointing towards their guilt. During the trial he reflects on the events that brought him to this point, his lost artistic ambitions, his sexuality in a homophobic sport, and his knowledge of the crime that threatens more than just his freedom or career.

Blue Sisters

Coco Mellors
4th Estate
TPB $34.99

June release, pre-orders welcome

The Blue sisters have always been exceptional—and exceptionally different. The one thing Avery, Bonnie and Lucky have in common is the hole left by the unexpected death of Nicky, their beloved fourth sister. A moving novel about the ways sisters shape each other, and how grief changes us, from the bestselling author of Cleopatra and Frankenstein.

Long Island

Colm Tóibín
Picador Australia
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

It is 1976, and Ellis Lacey, now in her forties with teenage children, lives in Long Island with her extended Italian American family. When a stranger arrives with shattering news, Ellis has choices to make, and what she chooses to do makes this one of Tóibín's most riveting and emotional novels to date. This gorgeous, enthralling sequel to Brooklyn is about longing and the rekindling of bonds with places and people left behind.

James

Percival Everett Mantle
TPB $34.99

Many know the story of Huckleberry Finn, but in this enthralling, ferociously funny and clever novel Everett shifts the narrative to focus on Jim, allowing him to reclaim his voice. While many narrative set pieces of Twain's novel remain in place, Jim's agency, intelligence and compassion are shown in a radically new light.

Lies and Weddings

Kevin Kwan
Hutchinson Heinemann
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Taking us from the beaches of Hawaii to the skies of Marrakech, from glitzy Beverly Hills to the inner sanctums of England's oldest family estates, this fabulous novel from the author of Crazy Rich Asians is a juicy, hilarious and sophisticated tale of love, money, murder and sex.

Poetry from Literary Masters

The Summer We Crossed Europe in the Rain

Kazuo Ishiguro and Bianca Bagnarelli (illus)
Faber | Demy HB $39.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

From the Nobel Prize-winning author of Never Let Me Go comes a gorgeously illustrated volume of lyrics written for the Grammy-nominated jazz singer Stacey Kent. An exquisite coming together of the literary and musical worlds, with lyrics infused with yearning, melancholy, love, and the romance of travel and liminal spaces.

Black Duck: A Year at Yumburra

Bruce Pascoe with Lyn Harwood

Thames & Hudson
TPB $34.99

In this deeply personal memoir, Bruce Pascoe and Lyn Harwood invite us to Black Duck, their farm at Yumburra, and to imagine a different future for Australia—one where we can honour our relationship with nature and improve agriculture and forestry. Where we can develop a uniquely Australian cuisine that will reduce carbon emissions, preserve scarce water resources, and rebuild our soil.

Purchase a copy of the book for your chance to win 1 of 5 framed Lyn Harwood's Black Duck prints. To enter the competition, go to bookpeople.org.au/competitions.

Terms & conditions apply. Competition closes 30 June.

Sister Viv

Grantlee Kieza

ABC Books
TPB $35.99

Grantlee Kieza has yet again brought us another amazing tale of Australian history, this time of Australian Army nurse Vivian Bullwinkel. At just twenty-six, she was the sole survivor of a Japanese execution and then spent the next three and a half years in captivity. Viv went on to become a leader in the Australian nursing field and recipient of numerous awards. A remarkable woman we all should know about.

Growing Up Torres Strait Islander in Australia

Edited by Samantha Faulkner

Black Inc
PB $32.99

A showcase of the distinct identity of Torres Strait

Islanders through their diverse voices and journeys. Emerging and established writers from both today and the recent past such as Eddie Mabo, Thomas Mayo, Lenora Thaker, Ellie Gaffney, Jillian Boyd-Bowie, Aaron Fa'aoso and Jimi Bani, share their love of culture, food, family, language, and Country.

Datsun Angel

Anna Broinowski

Hachette Australia
TPB $34.99

Based on Anna Broinowski's battered teen travel diary, Datsun Angel is a savage, darkly funny memoir of sex, drugs and violence-fuelled adventure through the brutal 1980s Australian outback. After facing the toxic misogyny of Sydney Uni O-Week, Anna agrees to hitchhike north with her gentle-giant friend Peisley, a journey that will lead them into the flyblown guts of the Australian soul.

Servo

David Goodwin

Hachette Australia
TPB $34.99

David Goodwin's weekend service station graveyard shift was a whirlwind of drive-offs, spiked slushies, and madness. From dodging shoplifting bees to facing balaclava-clad goons hurling cordial-filled water bombs, his experiences were bizarre. Yet amidst the chaos, he found camaraderie. Servo offers a riveting glimpse into the absurdity and strangeness of the night shift world.

Power of Balance

Kerryn Phelps

Hardie Grant
HB $49.99

Dr Kerryn Phelps AM has been a changemaker in Australian life, as Deputy Lord Mayor of Sydney and a leader of the LGBT+ community in Australia. Phelps explores her struggles around the Medevac issue, COVID-19 policy, Marriage Equality and her ascension to Federal Parliament to represent the people of Wentworth. A provocative memoir of a fascinating woman and an Australian leader.

If Everyone Cared Enough

Margaret Tucker

National Library of Australia
TPB $2.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

In 1977, the first edition of activist Aunty Marge's original manuscript was altered to avoid unsettling white readers. In this restored, updated edition, Tucker recounts her incredible life, from happy early memories, to the cruelty of being stolen from her family and sent to domestic training homes, to being awarded an MBE for her significant activism in 1968.

Because I Love Him

Ashlee Donohue

Magabala Books
TPB $27.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Ashlee Donohue chronicles the profound impact of life on the margins on herself, her family and her urban Aboriginal community. A proud Dughutti woman, Ashlee is determined to keep her family together, despite the unforgivable acts and inevitable fallout, to gift her children what she never had—the presence of their father.

Creative Lives

On Kim Scott

Tony Birch

Black Inc
HB $22.99

Tony Birch reflects on Kim Scott's award-winning method of utilising fiction as a pathway to truth and interrogation of the complex and messy frontier history of colonial encounters, in this new addition to Black Inc's 'Writers on Writers' series, in which leading authors reflect on an Australian writer who has inspired and influenced them.

Artful Lives

Penny Olsen

Melbourne Books
PB $39.99

From socialites to bohemians, Melbourne sisters Valerie and Yvonne Cohen were artists who lived frugally, enjoyed mischief and flaunted their unconventional lifestyle. Their circle included Lina Bryans, Clifton Pugh and Arthur Boyd. Spanning most of the last century, their fascinating story is told by their cousin, Penny Olsen.

Hazzard and Harrower: The Letters

Edited by Brigitta Oubas and Susan Wyndham

NewSouth Publishing
TPB $39.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

The friendship between two of Australia's greatest writers was conducted primarily by letter, eventuating in four decades of letters, cards and telegrams from Harrower's home in Sydney and Hazzard's abodes in New York and Italy. The correspondence, released after Harrower's death in 2020, bears witness to a complex friendship, including their infamous falling out.

The Cancer Finishing School

Peter Goldsworthy

Viking
TPB $36.99

Novelist, poet and Doctor 'Pete' Goldsworthy's new memoir offers wisdom, humour and wonder in the face of incurable illness. Darkly humorous and deeply moving, Goldsworthy turns his cancer into a meditation on life, love and acceptance, resulting in a fascinating mixture of his own experiences and stories of odd and interesting cases of coping with the inevitable.

Outspoken

Dr Sima Samar and Sally Armstrong

HarperCollins
TPB $34.99

An inspiring memoir of Dr Sima Samar—a warrior for women's rights in Afghanistan, who defied the Taliban in every turn—as a doctor, public official, founder of schools and hospitals. A Hazara woman, and under grave personal danger, she's been fighting for equality and justice for most of her life. Outspoken is the story of a remarkable life dedicated to the dream of justice and full human rights for all the citizens of her country.

Knife

Salman Rushdie

Jonathan Cape
TPB $36.99

Recounting his shocking public stabbing while on stage in New York, Salman Rushdie confronts the horrendously violent outcome of the fatwa placed on him over thirty years ago. Seriously injured in the attack, Rushdie lost the use of one hand and vision in one eye. His response is a deeply personal reflection on life and loss, and an encapsulation of the power of literature and art in confronting the worst of human nature.

How To Knit a Human

Anna Jacobson

NewSouth Publishing
PB $34.99

This is Anna Jacobson's memoir-quest to regain her life after experiencing psychosis and electroconvulsive therapy at age 23. As memory barriers begin to crumble, Anna weaves her experiences around the gaps of memories that are still not accessible alongside the cathartic act of knitting. This book is a reclamation of story and self.

Broken Girl

Caroline Laner Breure with Bradley Trevor Greive

Hachette Australia
HB $34.99

While enjoying a holiday in Spain with her boyfriend, Caroline's skull was horrifically crushed in an accident. Following a year-long coma, Caroline returned home to Sydney to discover everyone and everything she loved had vanished. This is the true story of how she reclaimed her life, told alongside the author of the bestselling Penguin Bloom, Bradley Trevor Greive.

Hope

Rosie Batty

HarperCollins
TPB $35.99

Following on from A Mother's Story, which detailed the lead up to her son's murder, Hope shares what happened to Rosie Batty the day after the worst day of her life and how she has reclaimed hope when all seemed lost. She shares her struggles as well as the stories of those who have inspired her to keep going.

Love, Death & Other Scenes

Nova Weetman

UQP
TPB $34.99

Beloved Australian author Nova Weetman's unforgettable memoir asks how we can continue to live and love through unimaginable loss. A moving, honest account of losing a partner of twenty-five years during Covid, parenting teenagers through grief, and buying property for the first time at the age of fifty, all told in a warm and wise, and often joyful tone.

Breath

Carly-Jay Metcalfe

UQP
TPB $32.99

Carly-Jay's story is as inspiring as it is confronting. Writing about her own life experiences through the various medical conditions and illnesses she had to endure is told in a raw and personal way. Bringing us on her journey of cystic fibrosis, double lung transplant and fighting a rare cancer—all told with honesty and warmth to her experiences—to find joy amongst the wreckage.

Because I'm Not Myself, You See

Ariane Beeston

Black Inc
TPB $36.99

May release, pre-orders welcome
For anyone who is a mother or has a mother, this is an important, unflinching, and raw memoir. Postnatal depression affects one in seven Australian families. Beeston's honesty and bravery to tell her story provide us all with insights and perspectives on motherhood and mental illness that we need to understand more about as a society.

Rebel Rising

Rebel Wilson

HarperCollins Australia
HB $49.99

After her meteoric rise to comedy fame, Rebel Wilson writes for the first time about her most personal and important moments in her life—from fertility issues, weight gain and loss, sexuality, overcoming shyness, rejection and meeting Brad Pitt. A refreshingly candid, hilarious, and inspiring book about her unconventional journey to fame and fortune.

The House of Hidden Meanings

RuPaul

HarperCollins
TPB $34.99

RuPaul's memoir peels back the layers of glamour, exposing the raw reality of his transformative journey from a tumultuous upbringing to worldwide acclaim. With unreserved candour, he recounts his odyssey toward self-empowerment and self-acceptance, delivering a profound message of resilience and genuineness.

The Silver River

Jim Moginie

HarperCollins
TPB $34.99

Jim Moginie's memoir charts both the rise of the band Midnight Oil and his own deeply personal journey. Midnight Oil became Moginie's de facto family, taking their music and activism to their fans. The nagging sense that something was missing took Moginie across the world in search of lost relatives, bringing his personal and professional lives together in a heartfelt Australian story.

A Very Secret Trade

Cassandra Pybus

Allen & Unwin
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Cassandra Pybus exposes the disturbing secret trade in the remains of Tasmania's original inhabitants during colonial times. The 19th century fascination with collecting exotic specimens, including skeletons of the thylacine and the platypus, included the horrific accrual of human remains. Devastating and unflinching, Pybus reveals the once-hidden truth about these 'gentleman' collectors and the ramifications for the First People of Tasmania.

Who Owns the Moon

A. C. Grayling

Oneworld
TPB $34.99

As a new space race begins, the natural resources of the moon are being coveted by the world's most powerful companies and corporations. Grayling explores this dynamic through terra nullius, a concept too often used to exploit communal resources for the benefit of few. An intelligent and compelling argument for a new global consensus that protects the rights of all.

We Can Do Better

Maja Göpel and David Shaw (trans)
Scribe
PB $32.99

Political economist and sustainability expert Dr Maja Göpel follows up Rethinking our World with an exploration of the structural changes needed to make a better world. There have always been great transformations in human history, many of which we have caused ourselves, thus making it possible for us to shape them for the better.

The Way We Are

Hugh Mackay
Allen & Unwin
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

One of Australia's leading social psychologists brings a compelling portrait of Australia today. Drawing on thousands of interviews, Hugh Mackay shows the varying ways we as a society have changed over the years and the major trends that are shaking the foundations of the Australian way of life. Suffused with affection for our country, this is an important and ultimately an uplifting book.

Kin: Family in the 21st Century

Marina Kamenev
NewSouth Publishing
PB $36.99

The shape of family has changed in the 21st century.

While the nuclear family still exists, other forms of kinship surround us today. Kin is an in-depth investigation of what influences us to have children and the new ways parenthood has been made possible. It examines couples without children, single parents by choice and rainbow families, and investigates the impacts of adoption, sperm donation, IVF and surrogacy, and the potential for a future of designer babies.

The Great Housing Hijack

Cameron K. Murray

Allen & Unwin
TPB $34.99

The Great Housing Hijack begins with a clever reimagining of procuring a tenant for a house. From there, Cameron K. Murray carefully exposes how the main stakeholders in the Australian property industry manipulate the market and policies to maintain a profitable status quo. Murray challenges the big housing con and provides ideas for change.

Run For Your Life

Sue Williams
Simon & Schuster Australia
TPB $34.99

The eye-opening true story about a family compelled to disappear for leaking Russian secrets. Nick Stride moved to Russia in 1998 to work at the British Embassy in Moscow. When he leaks secrets from Vladimir Putin's one-time deputy, he and his family find themselves on the run. After many years, Nick and his family have emerged from isolation ready to share their story.

Everest, Inc.

Will Cockrell
Gallery Books
TPB $34.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

An adventure history that tells the remarkable story of the Himalayan guiding industry. Filled with quotes from hundreds of Sherpa, western guides and their clients, Everest, Inc. focuses on the people who have made the mountain what it is today and tells a tale of entrepreneurs, journeymen and women, and the Nepalis who will take the industry into the future.

How to Win an Information War

Peter Pomerantsev
Faber
TPB $34.99

The incredible true story of the largely forgotten WWII British propagandist of Australian heritage, Thomas Sefton Delmer, who created 'Der Chef'—a fictional German whose radio broadcasts skilfully questioned the Nazi doctrine. As Peter Pomerantsev uncovers Delmer's story, he is called into a wartime propaganda effort of his own: the global response to Putin's invasion of Ukraine and the quest to turn the tide of information wars.

American Mother

Colum McCann and Diane Foley

Bloomsbury | TPB $34.99

Written in collaboration with Colum McCann, Diane Foley shares her story of her son Jim's life, his kidnapping and unbearable death while working as a video journalist in Syria. Following the unimaginable shadows of grief and loss, her remarkable generosity of faith and vision for justice helps continue to tell Diane and Jim's story.

An American Dreamer

David Finkel
Scribe | TPB $36.99

David Finkel spent fourteen years immersed in Iraq war veteran Brent Cummings' world. The result is an extraordinary chronicle of the United States, where Cummings left one war and found himself returning to another that seemed to be tearing apart the country he spent his life defending. A brilliant study of struggle in a time of crisis by a Pulitzer Prize winner.

Mushroom Magic

Dr Sapphire McMullan-Fisher

Smith Street Books
HB $29.99

This wonderfully illustrated guide looks at 50 interesting mushrooms from around the world, providing facts on their appearance, edibility and uses. With many fungi species remaining unidentified even today, this basic collection dips through a kaleidoscope of shapes, colours and size from the 'hidden kingdom'. A great insight for beginners into these unique multi-taskers.

Death As Told by a Sapiens to a Neanderthal

Juan José Millás and Juan Luis Arsuaga
Scribe
PB $32.99

This follow-up to Life as Told by a Sapiens to a Neanderthal is a brilliant intertwining of science and literature. Millás and Arsuaga once again dazzle the reader by addressing topics such as death and eternity, longevity, disease, ageing, natural selection, programmed death, and survival. A sharply reflective book about how evolution has treated us as species and as individuals.

Deep Water

James Bradley
Hamish Hamilton
TPB $36.99

The ocean has shaped and sustained life on Earth from the beginning of time. Its vast waters are alive with meaning and connect every living thing on Earth. Weaving together science, history and personal experience, Deep Water offers vital new ways of understanding not just humanity's relationship with the planet, but our past – and perhaps most importantly, our future.

Humpback Highway

Vanessa Pirotta
NewSouth Publishing
PB $32.99

Whether you're a whale lover or you're simply curious about the underwater world, Vanessa Pirotta's underwater investigation will inspire and give you a new respect for these majestic, marine giants. Pirotta dives beneath the surface to reveal the mysterious world of humpback whales—from their life cycle and human interference, to why whale snot and poo are more important to us than we think.

The Forest Wars

David Lindenmayer
Allen & Unwin
TPB $34.99

Forests purify our drinking water, preserve biodiversity and are our best hope to reduce carbon emissions. This book exposes what is happening in our native forests, revealing an unholy alliance between state forestry, the timber industry and unions that is making bushfires worse, killing wildlife and costing taxpayers millions, all for the sake of woodchips for export.

The Internet of Animals

Martin Wikelski
Scribe
TPB $36.99

If we tracked secret animal movements worldwide what would they tell us about how our planet is changing? As part of a groundbreaking new project called ICARUS, scientists have begun equipping animals with tracking devices. The data they collect creates a living map of animal behaviour and the impact of mobility on our changing planet.

Creative First Aid

Caitlin Marshall and Lizzie Rose
Murdoch Books
Flexibound $39.99

Embracing creativity without being critical of oneself and feeling the moment brings a sense of relaxation and a mental reboot. Marshall and Rose have made a unique guide with exercises that can be used to refresh our way of thinking in maintaining our mental health. They explain the science behind some of what we're thinking and why. Entwined with stories from others, this book helps show that we aren't alone.

Paperback Therapy

Tammi Miller
Simon & Schuster Australia
TPB $34.99

Certified practising counsellor Tammi Miller takes you on a journey of self-discovery and healing. Intended not as a substitute for therapy, but to give a different perspective on what skills are needed to help meet your mental health goals, you'll learn over 25 therapist-approved tools for everything from how to boost self-esteem and overcoming unhealthy habits, to managing anxiety.

I Want to Die but I Still Want to Eat Tteokbokki

Baek Sehee and Anton Hur (trans)
Bloomsbury
TPB $32.99

June release, pre-orders welcome

After reaching a global community of readers with her bestselling therapy memoir, Baek Sehee reaches out again to hold the hands of those who appreciated depression and anxiety being discussed with such intimacy. Healing is a difficult process, and Baek's conversations with her therapist become more complex with every new session.

Magic Pill

Johann Hari
Bloomsbury
TPB $34.99

June release, pre-orders welcome

Johann Hari walks us through his personal experience with heralded 'miracle' weight-loss drug Ozempic. Interviewing experts from around the world, Hari weighs the clear benefit with the high potential risks. He explores the scientific and cultural impacts of the polarising rapid weight loss solution as well as the physical and emotional toll it takes.

4 Weeks to Better Sleep

Dr Michael Mosley
Simon & Schuster Australia
TPB $34.99

Sleep is essential for our health, but 60% of Australians struggle to get enough. Dr Michael Mosley is the go-to for research-based health information, and is the ideal guide to getting your sleep and health back on track. Mosely gives us a radical four-week plan filled with surprising recommendations and tips for teenagers, shift workers, and anyone in need of some shut-eye. The gold-standard in health advice.

The Gut Repair Plan

Sarah Di Lorenzo
Simon & Schuster Australia
TPB $39.99

Sarah Di Lorenzo covers how the digestive system works, good and bad gut bacteria, prebiotic and probiotic food superheroes and what the worst offenders for your gut are. Di Lorenzo provides you with up-to-date information about gut health, the science behind it, and all the tools you need to improve it.

Picture Books

Miimi and Buwaarr, Mother and Baby
Melissa Greenwood

ABC Books
HB $24.99

Surrounded by the pinks and golds that evoke the warmth of a sunset, this is a mother's words of love for her baby in beautiful, simple text that also explains the Gumbaynggirr words used to describe deep ties to family and land. Another delight from Gumbaynggirr and Bundjalung artist Melissa Greenwood.

Mums and Mogs
Mick Elliott

Walker Books Australia
HB $24.99

After the huge success of Dads and Dogs, Mick Elliott is back with Mums and Mogs, the beautiful story of our precious mums and the cats of all types that work and play alongside them. From a dining mum with a hungry mog to a meeting mum with a messy mog, you will find your mum and your mog somewhere on the pages of this book.

The Garden of Broken Things
Freya Blackwood

HarperCollins
HB $26.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

One day, curious Sadie follows a cat into the tangled vines behind the lonely house at Number 9, Ardent Street. Deep in the undergrowth, past all the twisted, rusted things, Sadie finds the cat sitting on the lap of a woman, bent with time and weariness. Sadie has found the Garden of Broken Things...

Mama Bear and Me
Sophie Beer

Hardie Grant Children's Publishing
HB $24.99

From the bestselling author of Love

Makes a Family comes this lyrical and loving tribute to real-life mama bears showing how all-consuming their love can be. Whether they're snoozy and sleepy, rumbly happy, growly roary or fuzzily nuzzly, a bear hug from mama bear is the warmest place to be.

Tree
Claire Saxby and Jess Racklyeft (illus)

Allen & Unwin Children's Books
HB $24.99

Prize winners Claire Saxby and Jess Racklyeft

pair up again for another beautiful picture book about nature, the world around us and the mountain ash tree. Perfect to share with children and sure to inspire many conversations. The words are a dream, the illustrations are gorgeous, this is a book that comes highly recommended.

Happy All Over
Emma Quay

ABC Books
HB $24.99

Happy on the inside, inside-out, happy all over—splash it all about. Creator of Rudie Nudie, award-winning author-illustrator Emma Quay has produced a delightful story celebrating the small joys found in the everyday. Using rhyme and colour, Happy All Over shows children how they can find fun and happiness in their daily lives.

One Little Dung Beetle
Rhian Williams

Wild Dog Books
HB $24.99

Come along with Rhian Williams to use an array of beetles to count our way through one dung beetle to ten feather horned beetles. This is the perfect book for any little budding entomologist, filled with bugs and little tips on where to find them, some even in your own backyard.

The Big Book of Australian Nursery Rhymes
Frané Lessac

Walker Books Australia
HB $26.99

This book is such a treat! All the nursery rhymes you know and love, but with an Australian twist. Here, Old McDonald goes 'out bush' and Peter Piper becomes 'Pygmy Possum', the classic rhythms are retained but the rhymes wonderfully reinvented. With vibrant and playful illustrations this is sure to be a favourite with even the littlest readers.

Footprint
Phil Cummings and Sally Soweol Han (illus)

Allen & Unwin Children's Books
HB $24.99

Vibrant illustrations and bounding rhymes take readers on a journey to explore nature and the legacy of our impact on it. Explore forests and mountains, cities and fields, and animals in their natural habitats as you ponder the footprint humans have left on the earth. A calming book perfect for building discussions around mindfulness and the natural world.

Circles of Life
Gregg Dreise

Puffin
HB $24.99

Gregg Dreise, Kamilaroi creator, explores his cultural tradition for painting Gabayindah Guroos or Thank You Circles. Using ochre from Mother Earth, two young girls are guided by Uncle to paint different layers of Thank You Circles celebrating different elements of the world. Circles of Life explores the tradition, beauty and importance of Thank You Circles.

The Truck Cat
Deborah Frenkel and Danny Snell (illus)

Hardie Grant Children's Publishing
HB $24.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Tinka the cat lives with Yacoub the truck driver, until the day Tinka follows a butterfly and gets lost. Yacoub is also a bit lost, but one day follows the delicious scents of his childhood and finds more than he could have imagined. With warm text and illustrations, this is a truly beautiful story about home, compassion, and the pure joy of a cat's presence.

Country
Aunty Fay Muir, Sue Lawson and Cheryl Davison (illus)

Wild Dog Books
HB $24.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Join Aunty Fay Muir and Sue Lawson as they walk us on Country and show us why Country is central to so much of First Nations Culture. It is past, present, future, storytelling and song. Country is all of us. Country is you. Illustrated by Cheryl Davison, this gorgeous picture book is a delightful exploration of everything Country is.

Outlaw Girls
Emily Gale and Nova Weetman
Text Publishing
PB $16.99

By the creative duo who brought us Elsewhere Girls, Outlaw Girls is a rollicking tale of Ruby and Kate who have found themselves on the wrong side of the law. When a time travel portal opens up, their lives intersect and Ruby joins Kate Kelly in her quest to help the Kelly Gang remain on the run. Packed full of history, horses and adventure.

Tweet
Morris Gleitzman
Penguin
PB $17.99

The people of the world are puzzled. Their feathered friends are trying to tell them something, and they're not sure what it is. Then a boy and his pet budgie discover the secret. Join Jay and Clyde, and their friends Maxine and Dora, on an exciting, funny, risky journey to save their families. And every other family too. The latest adventure story by the amazing Morris Gleitzman.

Wurrtoo
Tylissa Elisara and Dylan Finney (illus)
Lothian Children's Books
HB $19.99

Wurrtoo is a courageous hairy-nosed wombat who lives on Kangaroo Island with a quest to marry his love, the sky. On his journey, Wurrtoo inadvertently saves a koala, Kuula, from a bushfire and acquires a new friend. Wurrtoo and Kuula face their fears, learn the significance of friendship and discover the power of wombat wishes.

11 Ruby Road: 1900
Charlotte Barkla
Walker Books Australia
PB $16.99

This is the start of an exciting new historical series for younger readers set at 11 Ruby Road, a house that stood for over 100 years. The first instalment follows Dorothy and her family as they move to the city at the dawn of a new century and find that city life is very different to the rural world they're used to.

The Apprentice Witnesser
Bren MacDibble
Allen & Unwin
Children's Books
PB $17.99

May release, pre-orders welcome
A tale of searching for strength and family in a low-tech post-climate change world from award-winning author Bren MacDibble. Bastienne Scull, a young orphan, is apprentice to the local Witnesser of Miracles, who investigates miraculous events and spins them into stories. One day a mystery leads them to a discovery that will change their lives.

Ferris
Kate DiCamillo
Walker Books Australia
HB $19.99

It's the summer before fifth grade, and for Ferris Wilke, it is a summer of sheer pandemonium. Her little sister, Pinky, has vowed to become an outlaw. Uncle Ted has left Aunt and Charisse, Ferris's grandmother, has started seeing a ghost in the doorway to her room ... The twice Newbery Medallist delivers a delightful, hilarious coming-of-age tale rich in family and community.

Fledgewitch
Lian Tanner and Martina Heiduczek (illus)
Allen & Unwin
Children's Books
PB $17.99

There are three Laws of Quill: there shall be no Witches, no Dragons and NO SECRETS. So how does ten-year-old Brim, a witch, and twelve-year-old Queen Rose of Hallow, a Dragon, become trapped in Quill, a place full of secrets? Fledgewitch is an enchanting tale of bravery and betrayal and a narrator obsessed with green Jelly Babies.

Look Me in the Eye
Jane Godwin
Lothian Children's Books
PB $16.99

Best friends Bella and Connie live on the outskirts of the city in an area which is changing as the suburbs creep closer. With Connie's unfriendly cousin Mish, the three are eager to explore their newfound independence after the pandemic lockdowns have lifted. With a rise in surveillance though, when does watching become 'watching over'?

The Night War
Kimberly Brubaker Bradley
Text Publishing
PB $19.99

Fleeing from Nazi-occupied France, twelve-year-old Jewish girl Miri finds refuge in a Catholic convent. At first wary of the nuns, Miri soon learns that there is much more than meets the eye to these knowledgeable women and the dangers they face in this captivating and often funny story that explores history, moral dilemmas and friendships.

Junior Fiction

A Small Collection of Happineses
Zana Fraillon and Stephen Michael King (illus)
Lothian Children's Books
PB $14.99

May release, pre-orders welcome
When Hattie causes a great Summer Storm, her neighbour Ada blows in. Hattie's not sure about this elderly lady and Ada is not so sure about the child downstairs, but the two embark on a slow path to friendship, with panther hunting and a little activism on the side. A gorgeous celebration of love and wonder.

Frog Squad: Desert Disaster
Kate and Jol Temple and Shiloh Gordon (illus)
HarperCollins
PB $16.99

Those young and young at heart will enjoy the hilarious antics and adventures Frog Squad gets up to. With wonderful facts sprinkled throughout to educate kids about frogs and the environment, this is a great story for bedtime reading while entertaining with vibrant illustrations.

Shower Land 1: Break the Curse
Nat Amoire and James Hart (illus)
Puffin
PB $14.99

Dragons, pitchforks, and a charging army were not what Felix expected when he turned on the shower and wished he could get away from his annoying brother and his dad's yelling. Finding himself in a whole new world, he probably should have wished for some pants while he was at it.

Deep is the Fen

Lili Wilkinson

Allen & Unwin
Children's Books
PB $24.99

What if that old folk tale turned out to be true? What if the society of Toadmen wasn't just an innocuous social group but something more insidious? And to stop your best friend from joining them, what lengths would you go to? Wilkinson deftly crafts a lush, page-turning, twisty tale of intrigue; with romance, magic, witches, and many, many toads.

The Reappearance of Rachel Price

Holly Jackson

Electric Monkey
PB $19.99

Sixteen-year-old Bel's mother, Rachel, went missing when she was two. Now as a documentary into Rachel's disappearance is being made, she mysteriously reappears. Where has Rachel been and why is Bel's father now acting strange? Gripping and suspenseful all the way to its twisty, explosive, emotional end, from the bestselling author of A Good Girl's Guide to Murder.

Into the Mouth of the Wolf

Erin Gough

Hardie Grant Children's Books
PB $22.99

May release, pre-orders welcome
Iris and her mother are on the run; from the earthquakes that are ravaging the world, and from the people who are following them. Then Iris' mother disappears, leaving her with a cryptic note, and a mystery to solve. With a slow-burn romance, this is a gripping, twisty thriller and murder mystery, set in a not-too-distant cli-fi future.

Wrong Answers Only

Tobias Madden

Penguin
PB $19.99

Marco's life has taken an unexpected direction—instead of studying at uni, his family has sent him to live on a cruise ship after a 'blip' that was definitely NOT a panic attack. Is his best friend correct? Is it time for Marco to get a few things wrong?

Those Girls

Pamela Rushby

Walker Books Australia
PB $19.99

1942. The world is at war. Sixteen-year-old Hilly is desperate to do something useful to help the war effort. So when she sees a poster recruiting for the Australian Women's Land Army, she jumps at the chance to make a difference. In her journey, Hilly encounters backbreaking work, adversity and romance, to ultimately find that she's capable of more than she thought possible...

The Unexpected Mess of It All

Gabrielle Tozer

HarperCollins
PB $19.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

All Jamila wants to do is forget her life—everything from her caravan home, her online friends living hundreds of miles away, the bullying at school, especially her ex-friend Billy Radcliffe. But on a weekend away with her family, it soon becomes clear that some things can't, and shouldn't be forgotten in this coming-of-age story by the author of The Intern.

A Way Home

Emily Brewin

MidnightSun Publishing
PB $19.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

Grace's mum was taken to the mental health unit. Louie has his own problems.

Homeless, together they forge a strong friendship and navigate the trials of living on Melbourne's streets with help from strangers, music, and each other. This moving YA novel asks: could a better life be within reach?

One By One They Disappear

Mike Lucas

Penguin
PB $19.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

The fog is coming. And when it does, everything disappears... One girl. Two identities. Three friends. One disappears. One forgets. One remembers. There is truth in every tale... Find it! The latest novel by the acclaimed author of What We All Saw is a frighteningly creepy supernatural YA thriller that chills to the bone with imagined and real horrors.

Gus and the Missing Boy

Troy Hunter

Wakefield Press
PB $24.99

True crime obsessive Gus becomes a detective overnight when he finds an online picture of a missing child with an uncannily familiar face. Together with his best friends, he sets out to investigate a cold case that could reveal the secrets of his past in this cracking tale of identity and family.

Kids Non-fiction

Life On Us

Tim and Emma Flannery and Xavi Ramiro (illus)

Hardie Grant Children's Publishing
HB $29.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

The amazing duo of Tim and Emma Flannery have brought us another fascinating look at the human body, this time we are looking at what is living on and in our bodies. Get ready to learn about the trouble making germs and parasites that are right now climbing on and inside you.

When the World Was Soft

Juluwarlu Group

Aboriginal Corporation
Allen & Unwin Children's Books
Flexibound $34.99

A ground-breaking graphic novel sharing the stories of Yindjibarndi Creation-times. Yindjibarndi believe all creation is written in our landscape and was sung long ago. The song and stories are passed from generation to generation. Featuring striking artwork by members of the Juluwarlu Art Group, When the World Was Soft is a powerful gift of culture for young and old.

Seed to Sky

Pamela Freeman and Liz Anelli (illus)

Walker Books Australia
HB $26.99

Yet again this magnificent duo have brought us a stunning picture book with exquisite illustrations and relatable text about Australia's unique Daintree Rainforest. The story of the ecosystem flows beautifully and is enhanced with some of the wonderfully special features of the oldest rainforest on earth.

What Can I Bring?

Sophie Hansen

Murdoch Books
HB $49.99

You need never fear a potluck again with this stunning new cookbook from Sophie

Hansen. With easy, community-focused recipes, and drawing inspiration from some of her favourite country cooks, family and friends, this cookbook will answer the age-old question you pose yourself before any gathering: What can I bring?

Italian Coastal

Amber Guinness

Thames & Hudson
HB $59.99

Travel down the coast of the Tyrrhenian Sea—the stretch of Mediterranean from the Tuscan coast down to the Amalfi coast and on to northern Sicily—to learn the history, stories and flavours of this iconic region, in recipes that pack maximum flavour with minimum effort. Sumptuously produced, this beautiful cook and coffee table book, is a great companion to Guinness's A House Party in Tuscany.

Baker Bleu

Mike Russell

Murdoch Books
HB $49.99

From leading Melbourne baker, Mike Russell, Baker Bleu features 70-plus delicious, inventive recipes for anyone who wants to emulate the best bread you can find in his cult bakeries. From country loaf to everything bagels and challah, and ways to use that same dough, plus how to make the flakiest of pastry and greatest of pies, and tips to re-purpose yesterday's bread, this is a treasure trove for bread lovers.

The Mediterranean Cook

Meni Valle

Smith Street Books
HB $55.00

A scrumptious collection of Mediterranean-themed dishes celebrating the fresh and flavour-packed cuisine of the region.

Beautifully photographed with over 75 vegetarian dishes and tips sprinkled throughout on how to make the most of fresh local produce all year round. From roasted eggplants and tangy artichokes to perfectly flaky pastry boats, each dish is an invitation to savour the sensational flavours of the Mediterranean.

Beatrix Bakes: Another Slice

Natalie Paull

Hardie Grant Books
HB $50.00

Following on from her bestselling Beatrix Bakes, Natalie Paull returns with Beatrix Bakes: Another

Slice, a vibrant collection of beloved recipes, including previously unseen favourites, like lemon cream tart and chocolate sour cream layer cake. From cookies to cakes, tarts to pies, this book is a delightful addition to any dessert-lover's collection, complete with helpful tips and a warm tone.

Easy Wins

Anna Jones

4th Estate
HB $55.00

With twelve hero ingredients including lemon, mustard, miso and tahini, Anna Jones brings us 132 flavour-filled simple recipes. From Double Lemon Pilaf with Buttery Almonds, to Traybake Lemon Dhal, Miso Rarebit, and Cherry and Chocolate Peanut Butter Sundae, these are recipes that you'll want to cook again and again.

Wholesome

Sarah Pound

Plum
PB $44.99

May release, pre-orders welcome

No fuss, healthy and easy to follow recipes for the tight-for-time cook. From salads, stir-fries and soups to hearty staple family friendly meals that anyone can whip up. There are no tricky techniques here—this is solid home cooking that is fresh, fast and full of flavour.

At Nonna's Table

Paola Bacchia

Smith Street Books
HB $45.00

Step into the warm and welcoming kitchen of Nonna Livia with Paola Bacchia's cookbook, At Nonna's Table.

These mouth-watering recipes are paired with feast-for-the-eyes photography in a cookbook to dazzle the senses. These home-style Italian recipes are the perfect way to bring some new flavours to the dinner table and to explore the rich history of Italian cuisine.

The Simple Dinner Edit

Nicole Maguire

Plum
PB $39.99

A cookbook filled with simple, delicious and speedy weeknight meals using everyday ingredients to help you streamline your weekly dinner plan and save your money and sanity. Nicole Maguire, author of The Simple Home Edit online hub, has included loads of family favourites and tips on how to freeze or use leftovers into a second meal.

Win a Pack of Illustrated Lifestyle Books

New Coastal

Ingrid Weir

Hardie Grant Books
HB $60.00

May release, pre-orders welcome

This beautiful, photo-filled hardback serves as an inspiration and compass for life lived by the sea. In chapters including Remote Coastal, Bohemian

Coastal and City Coastal, interior designer and photographer Ingrid Weir transports you to coastal towns both near and far, from Esperance, King Island and The Bay of Fires in Australia to Montauk, Malibu and Laguna Beach in the USA.

With thanks to Hardie Grant Publishing, purchase a book from this guide from your local bookshop for your chance to win 1 of 2 packs of illustrated lifestyle books, valued at $335 each.

To enter, go to: www.bookpeople.org.au/competitions.

Terms & conditions apply. Competition closes 30 June 2024.

Gift, Travel and Illustrated

Galah.
Annabelle Hickson
Murdoch Books
HB $69.99

From the much-loved magazine of the same name, this stunning book brings together the best work from more than 50 writers, photographers and artists, showcasing incredible landscapes, remarkable places, and the diversity and creativity of the people that call the country home.

WIN: Purchase a copy of the book for your chance to win 1 of 2 subscriptions to Galah magazine (3 issues) valued at $90.00 each. To enter, go to: www.bookpeople.org.au/competitions.

Terms & conditions apply. Competition closes 30 June 2024.

Modern Heritage
Cameron Bruhn
Thames & Hudson Australia
HB $79.99

Modern Heritage delves into Australian homes from the 1920s to the 1940s, showcasing twenty residences with charm from bygone eras to highlight the cultural context behind these structures and emphasise the responsibility of owners in preserving their legacy. Modern Heritage is a testament to the enduring significance of these cherished homes.

Visionary
Claire Takacs and Giacomo Guzzon
Hardie Grant Books | HB $70.00

Photographer Claire Takacs and landscape architect Giacomo Guzzon introduce stunning private and public gardens from around the world that have addressed both sustainability and climate change with outstanding results. Be inspired by the new ways garden and landscape designers are thinking about planting and garden design in the face of climate change.

Tasmanian Gardens
Meg Bignell and Alice Bennett
Thames & Hudson Australia
HB $79.99

Meg Bignell and award-winning photographer Alice Bennett have joined together to explore 20 Tasmanian gardens, from coastal headlands to beautiful flower farms. Each of these gardens envisage the diverse and stunning artistry of lutruwita/Tasmanian gardens, where every garden is a story and every gardener is a storyteller.

A Day in Tokyo
Brendan Liew and Caryn Ng
Smith Street Books | HB $39.99

A Day in Tokyo is the ultimate book for food and travel enthusiasts, featuring more than 90 iconic recipes. Capturing some of Tokyo's most famous dishes, Liew and Ng take us on a delicious adventure from breakfast through to dinner and beyond, showcasing the diverse tastes and ingredients of Japanese cuisine and sharing tips on where to find the best local eats.

Slow
Meredith Gaston Masnata
Hardie Grant Books | HB $24.99

With Meredith's iconic words of wisdom and beautiful illustrations, Slow shows us that now is the time to relish the sweetness of life. Each chapter explores how slow living can create a more meaningful life that has connection, joy and beauty, empowering us to ultimately slow down and appreciate what we have.

Under the Stars:
Camping Australia and New Zealand
Lonely Planet
HB $44.99

Sleep under the stars in Australia and New Zealand's most spectacular spaces. Discover more than 200 out-of-this-world camping hotspots in this epic guide that features breathtaking wild camping pitches, picturesque glamping sites, scenic campgrounds, cabins, huts and more—with practical details and expert tips for an adventure like no other.

Best Beaches: 100 of the World's Most Incredible Beaches
Lonely Planet
HB $49.99

Dive into this stunning coffee table book featuring one hundred of the world's most magnificent beaches. Packed with breathtaking photography and practical tips on reaching each paradise, it's the ultimate guide for beach lovers. Selected by Lonely Planet, these shores promise unforgettable adventures and endless inspiration.

BOOK FACE

The Marketplace, Gungahlin ACT
P: 02 6255 7067
E: gungahlin@bookfacestores.com.au

Erina Fair, Erina NSW
P: 02 4365 5288
E: erina@bookfacestores.com.au

Northbridge, Northbridge NSW
E: northbridge@bookfacestores.com.au

Port Central, Port Macquarie NSW
P: 02 6584 6002
E: port@bookfacestores.com.au

Pacific Fair, Broadbeach QLD
P: 07 5592 1700
E: pacific@bookfacestores.com.au

BookPeople

The books in this guide have been chosen and reviewed by Australia's leading booksellers and members of BookPeople.org.au

COVER CREDIT and DISCLAIMER:

Cover and theme inspiration have been taken from the jacket image of Pheasants Nest by Louise Milligan, Allen & Unwin. Price, format and information are correct at time of print. RRP's refer to publishers' recommended retail prices. Format and prices may change without notice. Some booksellers may not be able to hold stock of every book in this guide. Speak to your bookseller about special orders. The prices and any special offers in this guide are strictly while stocks last and expire 30 June 2024.